Q1. Name any two natural materials obtained from plants.

Q2. What makes soil fertile?

Q3. Name an animal that lives in a burrow.

Q4. Which of these is not a part of soil?
   a) Air
   b) Glass
   c) Sand

Q5. When does the moon look completely round?

Q6. What is leather?

Q7. Where is petrol obtained from?

Q8. What are the types of soil?

Q9. Which of this natural material is obtained from earth?
   a) Jute
   b) Gold
   c) Wool
   d) Cotton
Q10. What kind of soil holds water for a longer time?

Q11. What are the factors responsible for air pollution?

Q12. Fill in the blanks.
   a) Air contains gases, dust and water ________.
   b) Moving air is called ________.

Q13. Why does only half of the earth have day or night?

Q14. Soil is used for various purposes. Explain any two?

Q15. Draw any two phases of the moon.

Q16. Name three animals that live in the soil?

Q17. From what do we get the following materials?
   a) Jute: __________
   b) Cement: __________
   c) Glass: __________
   d) Wool: __________

Q18. How manure makes the land fertile?

Q19. What is water-vapour?

Q20. Why there is no life on the moon?

Q22. Fill in the blanks.
   a) Materials like cotton and milk are ________.
   b) Wool and leather are natural materials obtained from ________.
   c) Glass is made from ________.

Q23. Give one word answers.
a) What is narrow body flowing water called?

b) During the severe winter season some birds fly away to warmer places. What are these birds called?

c) Which season follows the monsoon season?

Q24. Give two names of soft materials, heavy materials and light materials.

Q25. What makes the earth bright and warm?

Q26. Write how each of the following things breathe.

a) Frog

b) Snake

c) Ant

d) Sparrow

e) Fish