I. Read the passage and answer the following questions.

When a person tells the story of his life in his own words it is called an autobiography. Gulliver, a sailor, was once caught in the land of giants. This is how he describes his experience. On the 16th of June 1730 we discovered land. Our captain sent a dozen men with vessels for water, if any could be found. When we came to land we saw no river or spring nor any inhabitants. The country was barren and rocky. It was impossible for me to climb because every step was six feet length. I discovered one of the inhabitants. His voice was much louder than a trumpet.
